

Tin Woof! Inn-Frankfort 3 Day Event

For DockDogs® Worldwide WoofStock XII August 21st , 22nd , 23rd 2026

“Where the Grass is Green & the Invites are Plenty”

We are anticipating another large crowd, so we want to make sure we are properly organized to make your competition the best it can be. This is a Wild Card Double Header event so both DockDogs and Dueling Dogs events will be held in the Tin Woof Inn Sanctioned Facility pool. Anticipate an aggressive daily schedule, with wave times running early or delayed. Be prepared to start early and go late.

- 1. Hotel Information: Due to a number of factors beyond our control, we have had a great deal of difficulty securing hotel space for this event. Several hotels have raised their fees across the board and we have asked for the best rate available.

 - Home2 Suites 105 Allen Way, Frankfort, KY 40601, 502-234-250.

13. Product Sales: We understand that many competitors sell products during some events. Often competitors may be sponsored by the company and this is a way for folks to offset the costs of competing. As a Sanctioned Facility, with retail sales of our own and a capital investment of over $35,000 in the pool we are trying to optimize our revenue to offset our event and overall DockDog costs. In many cases vendors may have paid for space to sell or display their products. Selling stuff at your set-up can take away from our retail sales during the event (we have evidence of this from past events) and frankly pisses off those who may have paid for a sponsorship. Also, the State of Kentucky requires you to have a sales tax license to retail items.
 - a. Selling items on our premises could jeopardize our sales tax license or create sales tax liability for us. So, NO RETAIL SALES OF ANY KIND CAN BE MADE ON THE COMPETITION GROUNDS BEFORE, DURING OR AFTER THE EVENT. THIS INCLUDES TAKING PICTURES WHICH MAY LATER BE SOLD ON LINE. You may give away product samples, but no sales. Failure to comply with this Sanctioned Facility requirement may cause you to be asked to leave the grounds for the duration of the competition.
